AKITA WALNUT

A contemporary dining collection with an Oriental twist, the Akita dining range is crafted using American black walnut veneers, noted for the beautiful character of its grain, producing more figure variation than any other wood and developing a wonderfully lustrous patina over the years.

Cleverly concealed felt-inlay drawers, glass shelves and discreet handles maintain the clean and simple lines that work so well in a modern setting. With a wide choice of options, including three tables – extending and fixed, a selection of chairs and occasional pieces, the beauty of this striking collection lies in its balance of thoughtful design and practical versatility.
