CHARTREUSE
AGED OAK & ANTIQUE WHITE

Chartreuse dining is a striking example of a sturdy, versatile and stylish casual dining range that is beautifully made using American oak solids and veneers finished in a fashionable aged oak and solid beech in an antique white paint. Central to the dining table options is one that is cleverly engineered to store two leaves, allowing up to 10 seating positions when fully extended. Create your own distinctive look with either a classic "X" back wooden chair or beautifully stitched and buttoned upholstered chairs with studded detail. Quality touches such as bespoke handles, classically styled turned legs and Blum soft-closing drawer runners finally defines this modern update on a timeless classic.
